

James Ensminger

Performance

Jim is an easy going, soft-spoken man who always seems to be having fun. He always has a kind word and a handshake for everyone he meets. Jim has enjoyed bowling most of his life. As a career military man for 21 years, Jim bowled all over the US and Europe, representing his country on several Air Force and Inter-service bowling teams.

He also bowled on Italian and Spanish National Teams while serving overseas in the military. Jim has served as League President in several different leagues. When his children were growing up you could always find Jim in the bowling center on Saturday mornings coaching Junior League.
